THE SCHOOLS

Establishment and incorporation of Schools.

4. On and from the date of commencement of this Act, the Schools specified in column (3) of the Schedule, shall be the body corporates having perpetual succession and a common seal with the power subject to the provisions of this Act, to acquire, hold and dispose of property, both movable and immovable and to contract and shall by their respective names mentioned in column (5) of the Schedule, sue or be sued.

Objects of School.

5. Each School shall have the following objects, namely:—

- (i) to support the establishment and development of Schools of Planning and Architecture;
- (ii) to provide global leadership in the field of architecture, planning and allied fields.

Effect of incorporation of Schools.

6. On and from the commencement of this Act,—

- (a) any reference to any existing School in any contract or other instrument shall be deemed as a reference to the corresponding School;
- (b) all properties, movable and immovable, of or belonging to every existing School shall vest in the corresponding School mentioned under column (5) of the Schedule;

(c) all the rights, debts and other liabilities of every existing School shall be transferred to, and be the rights and liabilities of, the corresponding School;

(d) every person employed by every existing School shall hold his office or service in the corresponding School with the same tenure, at the same remuneration and upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as to pension, leave, gratuity, provident fund and other matters as he would have held if this Act had not been enacted and shall continue to do so unless and until his employment is terminated or until such tenure, remuneration and terms and conditions are duly altered by the Statutes:

Provided that if the alteration so made is not acceptable to such employee, his employment may be terminated by the School in accordance with the terms of the contract with the employee or, if no provision is made therein in this behalf, on payment, to him by the School, of compensation equivalent to three months' remuneration in case of permanent employees and one month's remuneration in the case of other employees:

Provided further that any reference, by whatever form of words, to the Director, Registrar and other officers of an existing School in any law for the time being in force, or in any instrument or other document, shall be construed as a reference to the Director, Registrar and other officers of the corresponding School;

(e) every person pursuing, before the commencement of this Act, any academic or research course in every existing School, shall be deemed to have migrated and registered with the corresponding School on such commencement at the same level of study in the School from which such person migrated;

(f) all suits and other legal proceedings instituted or which could have been instituted by or against an existing School, immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be continued or instituted by or against the corresponding School.

7. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every School shall exercise the powers and perform the duties as specified below, namely:—

Powers and functions of Schools.

(a) to organise and undertake research and innovations in architecture, planning, design and allied activities in such manner as the School may think fit, including in collaboration or association with any other School, educational institution, research organisation or body corporate;

THE SCHEDULE

[See section 3(k) and section 4]

(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(5)
Sl. No.	Name of the State	Name of the existing School	Location	Name of School incorporated under this Act
1.	Delhi	School of Planning and Architecture, being a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (21 of 1860)	New Delhi	School of Planning and Architecture, New Delhi.
2.	Madhya Pradesh	School of Planning and Architecture, being a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (21 of 1860)	Bhopal	School of Planning and Architecture, Bhopal.
3.	Andhra Pradesh	School of Planning and Architecture, being a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (21 of 1860)	Vijayawada	School of Planning and Architecture, Vijayawada.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The School of Planning and Architecture, New Delhi, a premier institution in the field of Planning and Architecture, was established in 1959 as an autonomous society, registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. In 1979, the School was conferred with the status of “Deemed University”.

2. In light of the vast changes taking place in the urban, rural and industrial environment in the country and with a view to adapting to the ever evolving Planning and Architectural education system globally, two new Schools of Planning and Architecture one each at Bhopal (Madhya Pradesh) and Vijayawada (Andhra Pradesh), were established by the Central Government in 2008, as registered societies under the Societies Registration Act, 1860.

3. The proposed Bill seeks to confer the status of “institution of national importance” to all the three Schools of Planning and Architecture at New Delhi, Bhopal and Vijayawada, thereby enabling them to emerge as “centres of excellence” with the objective of meeting the national and international standards of planners and architects in an ever increasing environment of urbanisation and industrialisation.

4. The Bill, inter alia, proposes to—

(i) declare those three Schools of Planning and Architecture as institutions of national importance;

(ii) establish a Council for Schools of Planning and Architecture similar to the Indian Institute of Technology and the National Institute of Technology to advise the Central Government on policy matter in the field of architecture and planning; and

(iii) empower these institutes to grant degrees to students of these School of Planning and Architecture.

5. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

NEW DELHI;

SMRITI ZUBIN IRANI

The 26th November, 2014.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. 3-1/2011-TS. VI, dated 26 November, 2014 from Smt. Smriti Zubin Irani, Minister of Human Resource Development to the Secretary-General, Lok Sabha]

The President, having been informed of the subject matter of the proposed School of Planning and Architecture Bill, 2014, recommends the introduction and consideration of the Bill in Lok Sabha under clauses (1) and (3) of article 117 of the Constitution of India.

Notes on Clauses

Clause 1.— This clause provides for the short title and commencement of the proposed legislation.

Clause 2.—This clause deals with declaration of Schools of Planning and Architecture mentioned in the Schedule as institutions of national importance.

Clause 3.—This clause provides for definitions of various expressions used in the proposed legislation which, inter alia, include "Corresponding School", "existing School", "School", "Society", "Statutes and Ordinances", etc.

Clause 4.—This clause relates to establishment and incorporation of School. It provides that on and from the date of commencement of the proposed legislation the Schools specified in column (3) of the Schedule, shall be a body corporate by the same name as mentioned under column (5) of the said Schedule and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, with power, subject to the provisions of the proposed legislation, to acquire, hold and dispose of property, both movable and immovable, and to contract, and shall, by the said name, sue or be sued.

Clause 5.—This clause provides that the objects of the Schools are—

(a) to support the establishment and development of Schools of Planning and Architecture; and

(b) to provide global leadership in the field of architecture, planning and allied fields.

Clause 6.—This clause provides for effect of incorporation of Schools. It provides that on and from the date of commencement of the proposed legislation,—

(a) any reference to any existing School in any contract or other instrument shall be deemed as a reference to the corresponding School mentioned under column (5) of the Schedule; (b) all properties, movable and immovable, of or belonging to every existing School shall vest in the corresponding School mentioned under column (5) of the Schedule; (c) all the rights, debts and other liabilities of every existing School shall be transferred to, and be the rights and liabilities of, the corresponding School mentioned under column (5) of the Schedule; (d) every person employed by any existing School immediately before such commencement shall hold his office or service in the corresponding School mentioned under column (5) of the Schedule, the same tenure, at the same remuneration and upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as to pension, leave, gratuity, provident fund and other matters as he would have held the same if the proposed legislation had not been enacted and shall continue to do so unless and until his employment is terminated or until such tenure, remuneration and the terms and conditions are duly altered by the Statutes. However, if the alteration so made is not acceptable to such employee, his employment may be terminated by the School in accordance with the terms of the contract with the employee or, if no provision is made therein in this behalf, on payment, to him by the School of compensation equivalent to three months remuneration in case of permanent employees and one month's remuneration in the case of other employees. The said sub-clause further provides that any reference, by whatever form of words, to the Director, Registrar or other officers of any existing School mentioned in column (3) of the Schedule, in any law for the time being in force, or in any instrument or other document, shall be deemed as a reference to the Director, Registrar or other officers of the corresponding School in column (5) of the Schedule, under the proposed legislation; (e) every person pursuing, before that day, any academic or research course immediately before such commencement in any existing School, shall be deemed to have registered with the corresponding School mentioned in column (5) of the said Schedule at the same level of course in such School; (f) all suits and other legal proceedings instituted by or against an existing School, immediately before such commencement may continue by or against the corresponding School mentioned in column (5) of the Schedule.

Clause 7.—This clause deals with powers and functions of Schools. It provides that subject to the provisions of the proposed legislation, every School shall exercise the following powers and perform the following functions—

(a) to organise and undertake research and innovations in architecture, planning, design and allied activities in such manner as the School may think fit including collaboration or association with any other School, educational institution, research organisation or body corporate; (b) to hold examinations and grant degrees, diplomas, certificates and other degrees; (c) to institute fellowships, Scholarships and confer awards, honorary degrees or other academic distinctions or titles; (d) to fix, demand and receive fees and other charges; (e) to establish, maintain and manage halls and hostels for the residence of students; (f) to supervise and control the residence and regulate the discipline of students of the School and to make arrangements for promoting their health, general welfare and culture and corporate life; (g) to notify academic and other posts with the prior approval of the Central Government and to make appointments thereto excluding the post of Director; (h) to appoint persons working in any other School or educational institution or involved in research of significance in any industry as adjunct, guest or visiting teachers of the School on such terms and for such duration as the School may decide; (i) to frame Statutes and Ordinances and to alter, modify or rescind the same; (j) to establish and maintain such infrastructure as may be necessary; (k) to deal with any property belonging to or vested in the School in such manner as the School may deem fit for advancing the objects of the School; (l) to manage the fund of the School and receive gifts, grants, donations or benefactions from the Government and to receive bequests, donations and transfers of movable or immovable properties from testators, or donors or transferors, as the case may be; (m) to co-operate with educational or other institutions in any part of the world having objects wholly or partly similar to those of the School by exchange of teachers, students and scholars and generally in such manner as may be conducive to their common objects on such terms as may be specified from time to time by the Senate; (n) to undertake consultancy in the areas or disciplines relating to the School for promotion of its common objectives; (o) to do all such things as may be necessary, incidental or conducive to the attainment of all or any of the objects of the School. However, a School shall not dispose of in any manner any immovable property without the prior approval of the Central Government.

Clause 8.—This clause provides that every School shall be open to persons of either sex and of whatever race, creed, caste or class, religion, disability, domicile, ethnicity, social or economic background and no bequest, donation or transfer of any property shall be accepted by any School, which in the opinion of the Council involves conditions or obligations opposed to the spirit and object of this section.

Clause 9.—This clause provides that all teaching at each of the Schools shall be conducted by or in the name of the School in accordance with the Statutes and Ordinances made for the said purpose.

Clause 10.—It provides that every School shall be a not-for-profit legal entity and no part of the surplus, if any, in revenue of such School, after meeting all expenditure in regard to its operations under the proposed legislation, shall be invested for any purpose other than for the growth and development of such School or for conducting research therein.

Clause 11.—This clause provides that the President of India shall be the Visitor of every School; the Visitor may appoint one or more persons to review the work and progress of any School and to hold inquiries into the affairs thereof and to report thereon in such manner as the Visitor may direct; and upon receipt of any such report, the Visitor may take such action and issue such directions as he considers necessary in respect of any of the matters dealt with in the report and the School shall be bound to comply with such directions within reasonable time.

Clause 12.—This clause provides that a Board of Governors, a Senate and such other authorities as may be declared by the Statutes to be the authorities of the School.

Clause 13.—This clause deals with the Board of Governors. Sub-clause (1) of the said clause provides that the Board of Governors of each School shall be the principal executive body of that School. Clause 17.— Sub-clause (1) of this clause provides that subject to the provision of the proposed legislation, the Statutes and the Ordinances, the Senate of a School shall be the principal academic body of the School and be responsible for the maintenance of standards of instruction, education and examination in the School and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be conferred or imposed upon it by the Statutes. Sub-clause (2) provides that without prejudice to the provisions of sub-clause (1), the Senate shall have the following powers, namely:—

(a) specify the criteria and process for admission to courses or programmes of study offered by the School; (b) recommend to the Board for creation of teaching and other academic posts, determination of the number and emoluments of such posts and defining the duties and conditions of service of teachers and other academic posts; (c) recommend the Board commencement of new programmes and courses of study; (d) specify the Board Academic content of programmes and courses of study and undertake modifications therein; (e) specify the academic calendar and approve grant of degrees, diplomas and other academic distinctions or titles; (f) exercise such other powers and discharge such other functions as may be assigned to it, by Statutes or by the Board.

Clause 18.— Sub-clause (1) of this clause provides that the Chairperson shall ordinarily preside at the meeting of the Board and at the convocations of the School. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that it shall be the duty of the Chairperson to ensure that the decisions taken by the Board are implemented. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that the Chairperson shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the proposed legislation or the Statutes.

Clause 19.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause seeks to provide that the Director of a School shall be appointed by the Central Government with the prior approval of the Visitor, on such terms and conditions of service as may be provided by the Statutes. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that the Director shall be the principal academic and executive officer of the School and shall be responsible for the implementation of the decisions of the Board and Senate and day-to-day administration of the School. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that the Director shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the proposed legislation or the Statutes or delegated by the Board or the Senate or the Ordinances. Sub-clause (4) of this clause provides that the Director shall submit annual reports and audited accounts to the Board.

Clause 20.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause provides that the Registrar of every School shall be appointed on such terms and conditions as may be laid down by the Statutes and shall be the custodian of records, the common seal, the funds of the School and such other property of the School as the Board shall commit to his charge. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that the Registrar shall act as the Secretary of the Board, Senate and such committees as may be provided by the Statutes. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that the Registrar shall be responsible to the Director for the proper discharge of his functions. Sub-clause (4) of this clause provides that the Registrar shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the proposed legislation or the Statutes or by the Director.

Clause 21.—This clause deals with the powers and duties of authorities and officers other than those mentioned above shall be determined by the Statutes.

Clause 22.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause seeks to provide that every School shall, within seven years from the establishment and incorporation of School under the proposed legislation and thereafter at the expiration of every fifth year, constitute, with the prior approval of the Central Government, a Committee to evaluate and review the performance of the School in achievement of its objects in the said period. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that the Committee constituted under sub-clause (1) shall consist of members of acknowledged repute in academia or industry, drawn from such fields of knowledge as may have relevance to teaching, learning and research in such School. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that the Committee shall assess the performance of School and make recommendations to the Board in accordance with the provisions laid down in the Statutes.

Clause 23.—This clause seeks to provide that for the purpose of enabling the Schools to discharge their functions efficiently under the proposed legislation, the Central Government may, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, pay to every School in each financial year such sums of money in such manner as it may think fit.

Clause 24.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause provides that every School shall maintain a Fund to which shall credit—

(a) all monies provided by the Central Government; (b) all fees and other charges received by the School; (c) all monies received by the School by way of grants, gifts, donations, benefactions, bequests or transfers; (d) all money received by the School from utilisation of intellectual property arising from research conducted or provision of advisory or consultancy services by it; (e) all monies received by the School in any other manner or from any other source. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that all moneys credited to the Fund of every School shall be deposited in such banks or invested in such manner as the School may, with the approval of the Finance Committee and the governing body, decide. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that the Fund of any School shall be applied towards meeting the expenses of the School, including expenses incurred in the exercise of its powers and discharge of its duties under the proposed legislation.

Clause 25.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause provides that every School shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare annual statement of accounts including the balance sheet in such form and accounting standard as may be specified by notification, by the Central Government in consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that where the statement of income and expenditure and the balance sheet of the School do not comply with the accounting standards, the School shall disclose in its statement of income and expenditure and balance sheet, the following, namely:—

(a) the deviation from the accounting standards; (b) the reasons for such deviation; and (c) the financial effect, if any, arising out due to such deviation. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that the accounts of every School shall be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any expenditure incurred by audit team in connection with such audit shall be payable by the School to the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India. Sub-clause (4) provides that the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any person appointed by him in connection with the audit of the accounts of any School shall have the same rights, privileges and authority in connection with such audit as the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India has in connection with the audit of the Government accounts and, in particular shall have the rights to demand the production of books, accounts, connected vouchers and other documents and papers and to inspect the offices of the School. Sub-clause (5) of this clause provides that the accounts of every School as certified by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India or any other person appointed by him in this behalf together with the audit report thereon shall be forwarded annually to the Central Government and that Government shall cause the same to be laid before each House of Parliament in accordance with such procedure as may be laid down by the Central Government.

Clause 26.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause seeks to provide that every School shall constitute for the benefit of its employees such provident or pension fund or provide such insurance scheme as it may deem fit in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be provided by the Statutes. Sub-clause (2) provides that where such provident fund or pension fund has been so constituted, the Central Government may declare that the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, shall apply to such fund, as if it were a Government provident fund.

Clause 27.—This clause seeks to provide that all appointments of the staff of every School, except that of the Director, shall be made in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Statutes, by—

(a) the Board, if the appointment is made on the academic staff in the post of Assistant Professor or if the appointment is made on the non-academic staff in every cadre the maximum of the pay scale for which exceeds prevalent grade pay scale for Group 'A' Officers; (b) the Director, in any other case.

Clause 28.—This clause seeks to provide that subject to the provisions of the proposed legislation, the Statutes may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the conferment of honorary degrees; (b) the formation of departments of teaching and centres for research; (c) the fees to be charged for courses of study in the School and for admission to the examinations of degrees and diplomas of the School; (d) the institution of fellowship, scholarships, exhibitions, medals and prizes; (e) the term of office and the method of appointment of officers of the School; (f) the qualifications of teachers of the Schools; (g) the classification, the method of appointment and the determination of the terms and conditions of service of teachers and other staff of the School; (h) the constitution of pension, insurance and provident funds for the benefit of the officers, teachers and other staff of the School; (i) the constitution, powers and duties of the authorities of the School; (j) the establishment and maintenance of halls and hostels; (k) the conditions of residence of students of the School and the levying of fees for residence in the halls and hostels and of other charges; (l) the allowances to be paid to the Chairperson and Members of the Board; (m) the authentication of the orders and decisions of the Board; and (n) the meetings of the Board, the Senate, or any Committee, the quorum at such meetings and the procedure to be followed in the conduct of their business.

Clause 29.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause provides that the first Statutes of each School shall be framed by the Central Government with the approval of the Visitor and a copy of the same shall be laid as soon as may be before each House of Parliament. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that the Board may, from time to time, make new or additional Statutes or may amend or repeal the Statutes in the manner provided in this section. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that every new Statute or addition to the Statutes or any amendment or repeal of Statutes shall require the prior approval of the Visitor who may grant assent or withhold assent or remit it to the Board for consideration. Sub-clause (4) of this clause provides that new Statute or a Statute amending or repealing an existing Statute shall have no validity unless it has been assented to by the Visitor. However, the Central Government may with the prior approval of the Visitor, frame or amend the Statutes for the School, if the same is required for uniformity and a copy of the same shall be laid as soon as may be before each House of the Parliament.

Clause 30.—This clause provides that subject to the provisions of the proposed legislation and the Statutes, the Ordinances of every School may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the admission of the students to the School; (b) the courses of study to be laid down for all degrees and diplomas of the School; (c) the conditions under which students shall be admitted to the degree or diploma courses and to the examinations of the School, and shall be eligible for degrees and diplomas; (d) the conditions of award of the fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, medals and prizes; (e) the conditions and mode of appointment and duties of examining bodies, examiners and moderators; (f) the conduct of examinations; (g) the maintenance of discipline among the students of the School; and (h) any other matter which by the proposed legislation or the Statutes is to be or may be provided for by the Ordinances.

Clause 31.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause provides that save as otherwise provided in this clause, Ordinances shall be made by the Senate. Sub-clause (2) provides that all Ordinances made by the Senate shall have effect from such date as it may direct, but every Ordinance so made shall be submitted, as soon as may be, to the Board and shall be considered by the Board at its next meeting. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that the Board shall have power by resolution to modify or cancel any such Ordinance and such Ordinance shall from the date of such resolution stand modified accordingly or cancelled, as the case may be.

Clause 32.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause provides that any dispute arising out of a contract between a School and any of its employees shall be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration consisting of one member appointed by the School, one member nominated by the employee, and an umpire appointed by the Visitor at the request of the employee concerned or at the instance of the School. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that the decision of the Tribunal shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that no suit or proceeding shall lie in any court in respect of any matter, which is required by sub-clause (1) to be referred to the Tribunal of Arbitration. Sub-clause (4) of this clause provides that the Tribunal of Arbitration shall have power to regulate its own procedure, however, the Tribunal shall have regard to the principles of natural justice while making such procedure. Sub-clause (5) of this clause provides that the law relating to arbitration in any other law for the time being in force shall in force not apply to arbitrations under this clause.

Clause 33.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause seeks to provide that with effect from such date as the Central Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf, there shall be established for all Schools specified in column (3) of the Schedule, a central body to be called the Council. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that the Council shall consist of the following members, namely:—

Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that the Council shall have a Secretariat with officials to be appointed by the Statutes. Sub-clause (4) of this clause provides that the Council may constitute a Standing Committee of the School of Planning and Architecture to assist the Council in discharge of its duties and responsibilities.

Clause 34.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause provides that save as otherwise provided in this clause, the term of office of a member of the Council, other than an ex officio member, shall be three years from the date of notification. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that the term of office of an ex officio member shall continue so long as he holds office by virtue of which he is such a Member. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that the term of office of a member of the Council nominated by Speaker of Lok Sabha or the Chairman of Rajya Sabha shall expire as soon as he ceases to be member of the House, which elected him. Sub-clause (4) of this clause provides that the term of office of a member of the Council nominated or elected to fill a casual vacancy shall continue for the remainder of the term of the member in whose place he has been appointed. Sub-clause (5) of this clause provides that notwithstanding anything contained in this clause an outgoing member of the Council shall, unless the Central Government otherwise directs, continue in office until another person is appointed as a member in his place. Sub-clause (6) of this clause provides that the members of the Council shall be entitled to such travelling and other allowances, as may be provided by rules, for attending meetings of the Council or the Committees thereof.

Clause 35.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause provides that it shall be the general duty of the Council to co-ordinate the activities of all the Schools. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that without prejudice to the provisions of sub-clause (1), the Council shall perform the following functions, namely:—

(a) to advise on policy matters relating to the duration of the courses, the degrees and other academic distinctions to be conferred by the Schools, admission standards and other academic matters; (b) to recommend to the Central Government, proposals for establishment of new Schools of Planning and Architecture; (c) to deliberate on such matters of common interest to Schools as may be referred to it by any School; (d) to lay down policy regarding cadres, methods of recruitment and conditions of service of employees, institution of scholarships and freeships, levying of fees and other matters of common interest; (e) to examine the development plans of each School and to approve such of them as are considered necessary and also to indicate broadly the financial implications of such approved plans; (f) to advise the Visitor, if so required, in respect of any function to be performed by him under this Act; and (g) to perform such other functions as may be referred to it by the Central Government, however, the same shall not be in derogation to the powers and functions vested in the Board or Senate or other authorities of a School.

Clause 36.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause seeks to provide that the Chairperson of the Council shall ordinarily preside at the meetings of the Council. However, in his absence, the Vice-Chairperson of the Council shall preside at the meetings of the Council. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that it shall be the duty of the Chairperson of the Council to ensure that the decisions taken by the Council are implemented. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that the Chairperson shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as are assigned to him by the proposed legislation. Sub-clause (4) of this clause provides that the Council shall meet once in every year and follow such procedure in its meetings as may be provided by rules.

Clause 37.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause provides that the Central Government may, by notification, make rules to carry out the purposes of the proposed legislation. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that without prejudice to the generality of the powers to make rules under sub-clause (1), the Central Government may make rules for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the manner and the conditions for providing provident fund and pension fund or insurance scheme under sub-clause (1) of clause 26; (b) the travelling and other allowances for the members for attending the meetings of the Council or the Committees under sub-clause (6) of clause 34; (c) the procedure to be followed in the meetings of the Council under sub-clause (4) of clause 36. Sub-clause (3) of this clause provides that every rule made by the Central Government under proposed legislation shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

Clause 38.—This clause provides that any act of the Council or any School or Board or Senate or any other body set up under the proposed legislation or the Statutes shall not be invalid merely by reason of—

(a) any vacancy or defect in the constitution thereof; or (b) any defect in the election, nomination or appointment of a person acting as a member thereof; or (c) any irregularity in its procedure not affecting the merits of the case.

Clause 39.—This clause provides that each School shall furnish to the Central Government such returns or other information with respect to its policies or activities as the Central Government may, for the purpose of reporting to Parliament or for the making of policy, from time to time require.

Clause 40.—Sub-clause (1) of this clause seeks to provide that if any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of the proposed legislation, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of the proposed legislation as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty, however, such order shall not be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the date on which the proposed legislation receives the assent of the President. Sub-clause (2) of this clause provides that every order made under this clause shall, as soon as may be, after it is made, be laid before each House of Parliament.

Clause 41.—This clause provides that the provisions of the Right to Information Act, 2005 shall apply to each School, as if it were a public authority defined in clause (h) of section 2 of the Right to Information Act, 2005.

Clause 42.—This clause provides that notwithstanding anything contained in the proposed legislation—

(a) the Board of Governors of every School functioning as such immediately before the commencement of the proposed legislation shall continue to so function until a new Board is constituted for that School under the proposed legislation, but on the constitution of a new Board under the proposed legislation, the members of the Board holding office before the constitution shall cease to hold office; (b) every Academic Council constituted in relation to every School before the commencement of the proposed legislation shall be deemed to be the Senate constituted under the proposed legislation until a Senate is constituted under the proposed legislation for that School but on the constitution of the new Senate under the proposed legislation, the members of the Academic Council holding office before such constitution shall cease to hold office; (c) the Board of Governors, Finance Committee, Academic Council, Executive Council, Building and Works Committee and such other Committees of every School functioning as such immediately before the commencement of the proposed legislation shall continue to so function until a new Board is constituted for the School under the proposed legislation, but on the constitution of a new Board under the proposed legislation, the members of the Board of Governors, Finance Committee, Academic Council, Building and Works Committee and such other Committees holding office before such constitution shall cease to hold office; (d) any student who joined classes of the existing School on or after the academic year 2008-2009 or completed the course on or after the academic year 2011-2012 shall for the purpose of holding examinations, granting degrees, diplomas, certificates and other degrees be deemed to have pursued a course of study in the existing Schools located at Bhopal and Vijayawada only if such student has not already been awarded degree or diploma for the same course of study.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 4 of the Bill provides that existing Schools mentioned in column (3) of the Schedule to be bodies corporate by the corresponding name as mentioned in column (5) of the Schedule. The three existing Schools of Planning and Architecture are centrally funded for meeting their expenditure and financial assistance of the Central Government would continue to be provided to these three Schools.

2. For the current financial year 2014-15, an amount of Rs. 50.00 crores under Plan has been allocated to School of Planning and Architecture, Bhopal. An amount of Rs. 30.00 crores under Plan has been allocated to School of Planning and Architecture, Vijayawada and Rs. 5.00 crores under Plan and Rs. 24.30 crores under Non-Plan has been allocated to School of Planning and Architecture, New Delhi with the stipulation that sanction of funds would be on incremental basis after assessing the requirement as part of the annual budgetary exercise.

3. Clause 23 of the Bill, inter alia, provides that the Central Government may, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law pay to every School in each financial year such sums of money in such manner as it may think fit.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 29 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to frame, with the prior approval of the Visitor, the first Statutes of each School. A copy of such Statutes shall be laid before each House of Parliament. The Statutes may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the conferment of honorary degrees; (b) the formation of departments of teaching and centres for research; (c) the fees to be charged for courses of study in the School and for admission to the examinations of degrees and diplomas of the School; (d) the institution of fellowship, scholarships, exhibitions, medals and prizes; (e) the term of office and the method of appointment of officers of the School; (f) the qualifications of teachers of the Schools; (g) the classification, the method of appointment and the determination of the terms and conditions of service of teachers and other staff of the School; (h) the constitution of pension, insurance and provident funds for the benefit of the officers, teachers and other staff of the School; (i) the constitution, powers and duties of the authorities of the School; (j) the establishment and maintenance of halls and hostels; (k) the conditions of residence of students of the School and the levying of fees for residence in the halls and hostels and of other charges; (l) the allowances to be paid to the Chairperson and members of the Board; (m) the authentication of the orders and decisions of the Board; (n) the meetings of the Board, the Senate, or any Committee, the quorum at such meetings and the procedure to be followed in the conduct of their business.

2. Clause 31 of the Bill empowers the Senate of each School to make Ordinances. The Ordinances made by the Senate shall be submitted to the Board and the Board may by resolution cancel or modify such Ordinances. The matters in respect of which such Ordinances may be made relate, inter alia, to the admission of the students to the School; the courses of study to be laid down for all degrees and diplomas of the School; the conditions under which students shall be admitted to the degrees or diploma courses and to the examinations of the School, and eligibility for degrees and diplomas and any other matter which by the proposed legislation or the Statutes is to be or may be provided for by the Ordinances.

3. Sub-clause (1) of clause 37 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the provisions of the proposed legislation. Sub-clause (2) specifies the matters in respect of which such rules may be made. These matters relate to (a) the manner and the conditions for providing provident fund and pension fund or insurance fund scheme under sub-clause (1) of clause 26; (b) the travelling and other allowances for the members for attending the meetings of the Council or the Committees thereof under sub-clause (6) of clause 34; (c) the procedure to be followed in the meetings of the Council under sub-clause (4) of clause 36; (d) any other matter which is to be or may be made in respect of which provision is to be made by the Central Government by rules.

4. Sub-clause (3) of clause 37 provides that every rule made by the Central Government is required to be laid before each House of Parliament.

5. Sub-clause (1) of clause 40 empowers the Central Government, by order published in the Official Gazette make provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of the proposed legislation remove any difficulty that may arise in giving effect to the provisions of the proposed legislation as appears to it to be necessary or expedient. However, such order is not to be made after the expiry of two years from the date on which the proposed legislation receives the assent of the President and such order shall be laid before each House of Parliament.

6. The matters in respect of which the Statutes, Ordinances or rules may be made pertain to matters of procedure and administrative details for which it is not practicable to make any provision in the Bill itself. The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.

ANOOP MISHRA,
Secretary-General.
